Class Polices

Class limit is 6 to 8 dogs. We have small classes so you can have more individual attention.

SORRY!! NO refunds In case of an emergency or injury/ illness with your dog you might be able to transfer to a future class with the same instructor but not guaranteed.

To register for class: Determine which class that you would like to take. Complete this form and mail to LynnDee's with payment made to the listed instructor. For students taking classes with Annette Shannon, contact her for class registration and payment.

You must pay before you begin class. Please register a week before the session you would like to enter. To insure a spot you might want to register early.

We are a positive training facility. NO chain leashes, prong collars, choke chains (with the exceptions of Conformation Classes) or retractable leads. There may be an exception depending on need and authorization from the instructor. Please use a flat buckle collar, a gentle leader, halti or harness with a 6 feet nylon or leather leash. If you are not sure what to use contact your instructor.

It's best not to feed you dog before class. Please bring soft treats for you dog that do not crumble. Conformation classes do use a variety of treats so if you have questions please consult your instructor.

Don't let your dog potty on car tires or the entrances of the building check with instructor or look for designated potty areas. Please pick up your poop and dispose in provided recipical.

Do not park across the street from the building that is reserved for our neighbors.
